

Back to the roots with Chris Winspear Design Jewellers

Chris Winspear Design Jewellers is renowned for elegant jewellery and custom-designed pieces of prestige. The man behind all this opulent jewellery, Chris Winspear, is very passionate about his craft and a proud South African. Although he has lived in several places around the world, his heart has always belonged to this colourful country with a mix of diverse cultures. To honour his home, the jewellery designer created the “Big Five” range consisting of charms, cufflinks and pendants.

What would South Africa be without its gorgeous and unique wildlife? The name “Big Five” originally came from hunters, who named those animals as they were the most difficult ones to hunt. Times have changed however, and in modern times South Africa is trying to protect its wildlife.

Chris Winspear Design Jewellers has an exciting new collaboration with the Wilderness Foundation and will donate 10% of sales from Rhino charms, pendants and cufflinks towards the Forever Wild - Rhino Protection Initiative. The campaign aims to fight against rhino poaching in South Africa and save the rhino from extinction.

The “Big Five” range will be in sterling silver and will consist of five charms, five cufflink sets and five pendants. If you would like to support protecting our unique wildlife, purchase your rhino jewellery today.
